Feedback from Teacher for the Year 2022-23

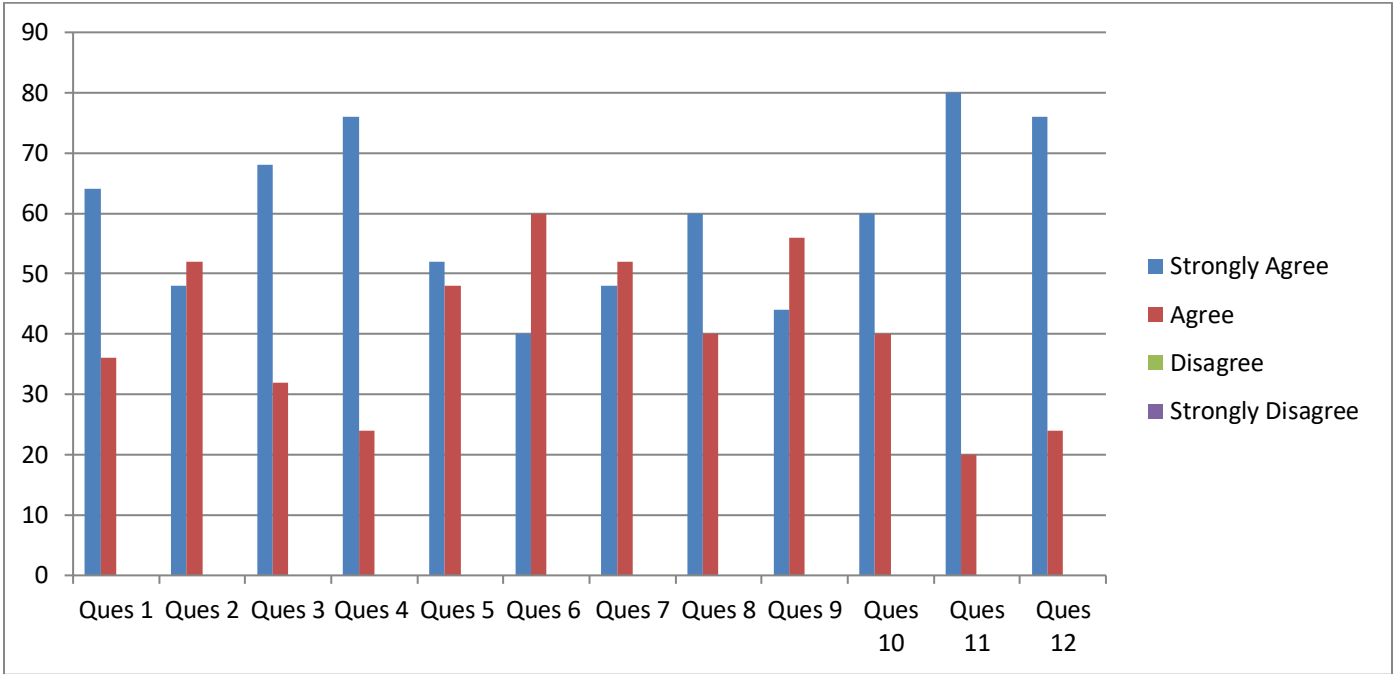

Graphical Analysis

CURRICULUM DESIGN AND DEVELOPMENT

1. The policy adopted by university is decentralized as it takes opinions and vertical channel of suggestion to take constructive approach towards syllabus frame.
2. Taking first two responses together they indicate the employment opportunities are given weightage in the design and development. Yet ther is more expected.
3. The members are asked freely their ideas and design, the curriculum, the system of communication are in place for the development of curriculum.
4. The green and red color bars prove the response are of free and fair, democratic and secular to put their ideas freely.

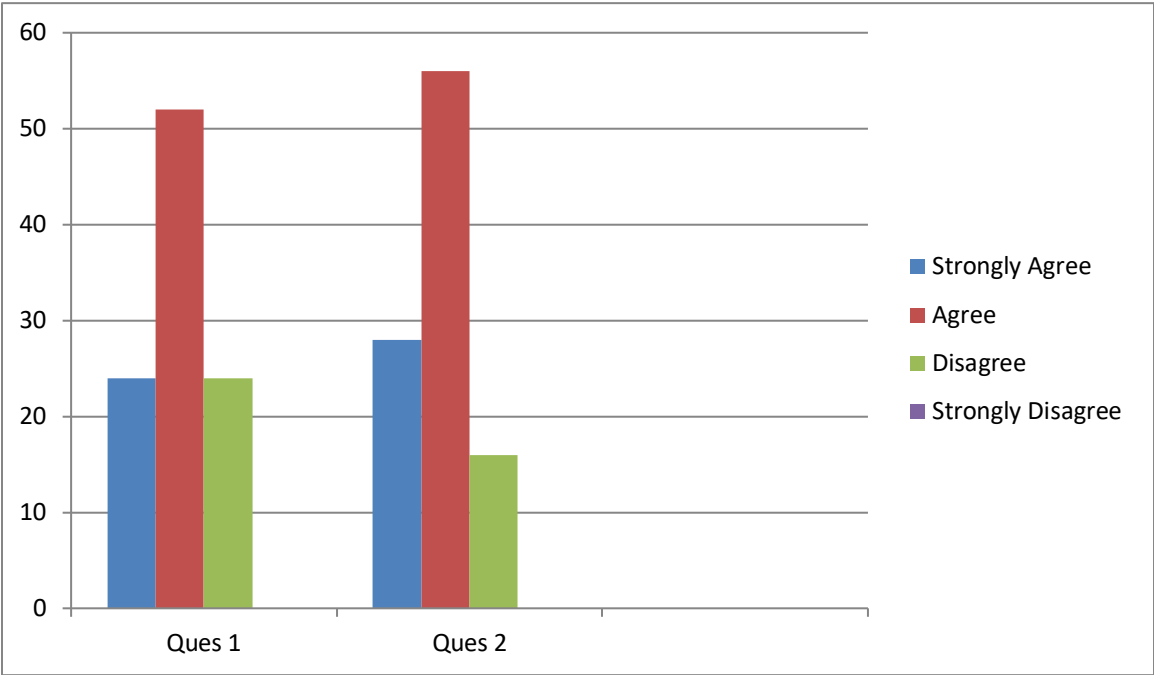

TEACHING, LEARNING, EVALUATION & RESEARCH

1. As the college admissions are online and adopted by online registration the students and colleges have free and secular access to the all sections of society.

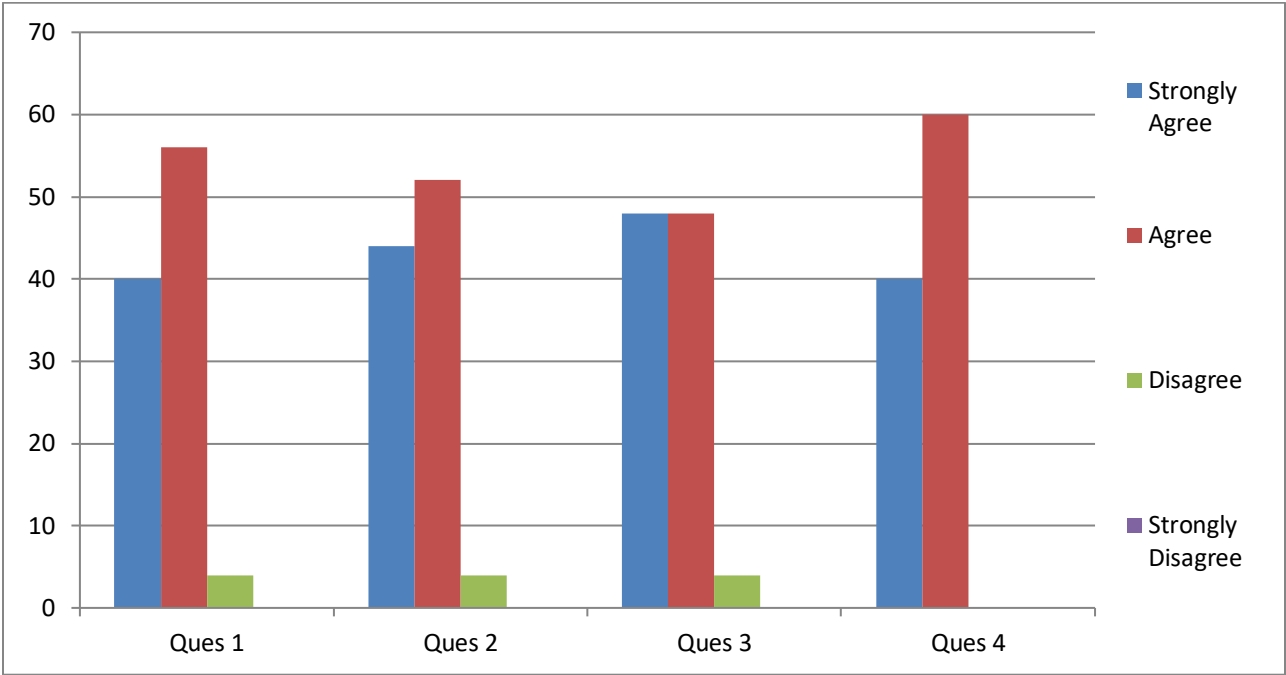

- 2. The responses indicate the resources and curriculum designed are students at the centre.The faculties are encouraged to adopt new knowledge and train themselves for the academic year. RC and OC courses train our staff as well as workshops at local and institute level provided opportunities.
- 3. The schedule of the classes isobserved as per schedule and all resources are freely available for the students.
- 4. The procedure followed is in place through recommendation of the teachers and need and reference books are obtained for the latest update. The opportunities are provided to the students to embark on the newer avenues.
- 5. The teaching aids are proper to some teacher but the laboratory and other dept require few improvements in the regard. The ICT, video learning resources are handy and multifaceted now to the staff.
- 6. The research activities are promoted among the faculty members, to apply for Minor Research Project and M.phil and PhD. The faculty are also encouraged for Books and paper presentation.
- 7. The industry linkages are encouraged through free fair and good relations for other and corporate activities and exposure purposes.Mou are used for the interaction and exposure visits.
- 8. The exam are as per cluster and university schedule therefore there are little scope for the college. Though it is conducted as per schedule.

INFRASTRUCTURE

- 1. The lucrative responses in green and strongly disagree segment indicate the scope for the infrastructure related improvements. Faculties are somewhat satisfied and need to address the issue.
- 2. Though few essentials are obtained for laboratory practicals and other infrastructure. But more need to be done.

GOVERNANCE

1. Taking two responses into account, there are sincere efforts to develop college, faculty and research.
2. The faculties are given freedom and accessible opinions are listened to improve the governance. Faculties have appeared satisfied and more is expected.
3. IQAC is promoting the quality in teaching and learning process in the department. The inputs are to be invited by the administration for more quality initiatives.
4. The files are clearly reasonably processed well on time but some reservations are found to introspect by the staff. There is satisfaction among the staff.
